

AMERICAN OTOLOGICAL SOCIETY, INC.

RESIDENT RESEARCH TRAVEL AWARD

158th ANNUAL SPRING MEETING

May 16 - May 18, 2025

New Orleans, LA

Deadline for submission – October 15, 2024

Manuscript (rough draft ok) due December 2, 2024

THE AWARD

The American Otological Society has established two resident research travel awards in the amount of $2,000 for the best clinical and basic science paper in Otolology submitted by a Resident/Fellow in training in the field of Otolology. Residents from any approved residency program in Otolology in the United States or Canada are eligible to compete. (Medical students are not eligible). The author will be expected to attend the Annual AOS Spring Meeting and present the paper as an oral presentation.

AUTHORSHIP

The Resident must be the primary author and provide the main inspiration for the paper, do the literature search, data collection, original and final drafts of the article, the discussion, and the conclusions. A staff sponsor may be listed as co-author or second author. The sponsor or staff consultant may only provide editorial help, cases for study, and/or a research laboratory setting for carrying out bench research.

THE PAPER

The paper is to be an original contribution, not previously published. A clinical study or basic research study is acceptable. Single-case reports or literature reviews are not acceptable. The paper is to be submitted in the publication format recommended by Otology & Neurotology, the official journal of the American Otological Society. An electronic submission of the manuscript, including illustrations will be required. The name of the author and any other identifying information should appear on the cover sheet only.

DEADLINE

An abstract must be submitted through the AOS website www.americanotologicalsociety.org on or before October 15th with a cover letter and full manuscript (rough draft okay) submitted to the AOS office by December 2nd.

(The blinded abstract must be selected by the Program Advisory Committee as an Oral presentation to be considered for this award).
