The Icahn School of Medicine at Mount Sinai affiliated with New York City Health and Hospitals/Elmhurst has an exciting opportunity for a full-time Otologist.

The physician will perform a full spectrum of otology outpatient and surgical care with a focus on chronic ear disease and will strive to provide the highest level of quality patient-centered healthcare to our diverse population. The hospital is easily accessible by public transportation and car from all areas of New York City, New Jersey and Long Island.

Candidates must have a MD degree and be board certified or eligible in Otolaryngology with a valid New York State license, DEA and Medicaid number. They should have a strong interest in research and clinical operations as there are a variety of opportunities for program development and advancement. Qualified candidates should have strong clinical abilities, teaching experience and excellent communication and interpersonal skills. Prior experience with academic medical centers and/or public health systems is preferred.

We offer a faculty appointment with the Icahn School of Medicine at Mount Sinai commensurate with credentials, experience and qualifications. Compensation ranges from $431,000 to $450,000 including on-call coverage and faculty practice distributions throughout the academic year.
